Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 5th January 1952

S.R.O. 1.—The following bye-laws providing for the control and supervision of places where dangerous or offensive trades are carried on in Wellington Cantonment, framed by the Cantonment Board, Wellington, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (17) of section 282 read with section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), are hereby published the same having been previously published, and approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely,—

BYE-LAWS

1. No place within the limits of Wellington Cantonment which has not been approved and for which a license has not been issued by the Cantonment Board (hereinafter referred to as the Board) shall be used:—

- (a) for boiling bones, offal or blood; or
- (b) as a soap house, oil boiling house, dyeing house or tannery; or
- (c) as a brick-kiln, pottery or lime-kiln; or
- (d) as any other manufactory or place of business from which an offensive or unwholesome smell may arise.

2. The license as referred to in bye-law 1 shall be in force for one year and may be renewed by the Board on application of the license holder for a further period of one year each.

3. The year for the purpose of the license shall be the financial year commencing on the 1st April of each year.

4. The Board shall issue a license if it considers the place for which license is applied for unobjectionable for the purpose.

5. The Board may, after giving the applicant for a license or the license-holder as the case may be, an opportunity of being heard and for reasons to be recorded in writing, refuse to grant a license or suspend or cancel a license already granted. Such refusal, suspension or cancellation shall not entitle the applicant or the license holder to any refund of fees if any, paid on account of such illness.

6. Any person committing a breach of any of these bye-laws shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to Rs. 50.
